

FEDERAL LEGISLATION

0580

(Revised 1996)

Federal legislation can affect the operation of a state department or agency; therefore it is very important during the formulation of federal legislation that the department advocate for the State of California's needs and interests.

The California Congressional Delegation is the primary representation for the state, and we can best respond to their needs through direct interaction with elected officials and congressional staffs and the Governor's Washington, D.C. Office.
